

A group of hikers is seen from behind, ascending a steep, snow-covered mountain trail. They are wearing winter gear, including backpacks and trekking poles. The scene is misty or foggy, creating a sense of isolation and challenge.

Climb Higher THE COMPANY PLANNING GUIDE

Canadianpath.ca

It starts with Scouts.

SET YOUR COMPANY'S GOALS!

Think of the Possibilities!

Talk with the Venturers in the Company about the goals with which they would like to challenge themselves this year.

Write your Company's goals (as numbers) in the squares.

FALL: September – November

WINTER: December – February

SPRING: March – May

SUMMER: June – August

Our Scouting Year can be divided into four program cycles, which align with the four seasons. Plan, do and review your program each season, and the quality of your adventures will improve in no time!

The coloured boxes include suggested goals from Scouts Canada. How adventurous will your program be?

Write the number your Company would like to set as a goal.

Review

- What do you know now that you did not know before?
- How did you help one another during this activity?
- How did you challenge yourself?
- How was everyone involved?
- What surprises did you encounter on this adventure?
- What did not work out as planned?
- How did everyone stay safe?
- What did you learn about safety while participating in your adventures?

At the START: The Company Leader should take the time to introduce the approach to Program Quality to the Company Leadership Team.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with ten horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There is no handwriting or other markings on the paper.
