

Plan:

- When and where will you share this adventure?
- Will you watch a movie in a theatre, or arrange to watch the film elsewhere?
- What is your budget for this adventure?
- Where will you share your conversation after the movie? What about refreshments?

Do:

- Share an interesting movie as an Expedition Team.

Review:

- Have some respectful and engaged conversation about what you watched. The nature of your review for this adventure will largely depend on the film and its subject matter.

Safety Note:

Everyone should be familiar with the nature of a movie's content in advance. Movies have the potential to include difficult material, and what is fine to one person could be offensive to another. Agree on a movie that everyone is comfortable seeing.

Beliefs & Values

The Adventure:

Watching movies can be a pleasant escape from our day-to-day lives. However, many movies have important and insightful comments to make on the human experience.

Form an Expedition Team made up of your Company's film buffs. Watch inspiring and challenging movies together, and then have a conversation about what you watched.
