

BEAVER SCOUT JOURNEY

YEAR	FRIENDS OF THE FOREST ADVENTURES	ADDITIONAL CHALLENGES	REVIEW PROCESS	NEXT STEP
Brown Tail Age 5 	3–5 adventures for each area on the Pond Map with the Lodge or Colony	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> learn Beaver Scout Promise, Law and Motto Outdoor Adventure Skills option of Personal Achievement badges at least one linking activity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review each adventure with Lodge and/or Colony Year-end Review with Colony (with specific attention to the SPICES) 	Blue Tail
Blue Tail Age 6 	3–5 adventures for each area on the Pond Map with the Lodge or Colony	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> take part in leadership of Lodge Outdoor Adventure Skills option of Personal Achievement badges at least one linking activity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review each adventure with Lodge and/or Colony Year-end Review with Colony (with specific attention to the SPICES) 	White Tail
White Tail Age 7 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 3–5 adventures for each area on the Pond Map with the Lodge or Colony Northern Lights Quest begins in about January 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> participate in leadership for Colony in White Tail Council Outdoor Adventure Skills option of Personal Achievement badges help White Tail Council plan at least one linking activity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review each adventure with Lodge and/or Colony Review with White Tail Council and Scouters Year-end Review with Colony (with specific attention to the SPICES) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Northern Lights Quest for the North Star Award Cub Scouts  North Star Award

Beaver Scouts progress from Brown Tail to Blue Tail to White Tail according to their age. For example, a 7 year-old registering for the first time will be a White Tail. Age groups progress together from year to year.