The Adventure:
Divide your group into smaller teams of about five Venturers. Your facilitator will assign your team a leadership style. Take ten minutes to create a skit based on the leadership style your team was assigned. Act your skit out for the rest of the group.

Why good leaders make you feel safe

Safety Note:
Make sure your skits are positive and don’t go in a negative direction.

Plan:
- What kind of leaders are there?
- How would you rate the different leadership styles you can think of?
  How might you reflect this in your skit?
- What kind of leader do you consider yourself?
- What is your skit going to entail?

Do:
- Act out your skit for the other groups!

Review:
- What do you know now that you did not know before?
- How do different types of leaders affect the way the followers act?
- How does leadership style efficacy change depending on the situation?
- How can you change to become a versatile leader?
- What kind of leadership are you most comfortable with?
