

Global Goals... LET'S DRAW!

It starts with Scouts.

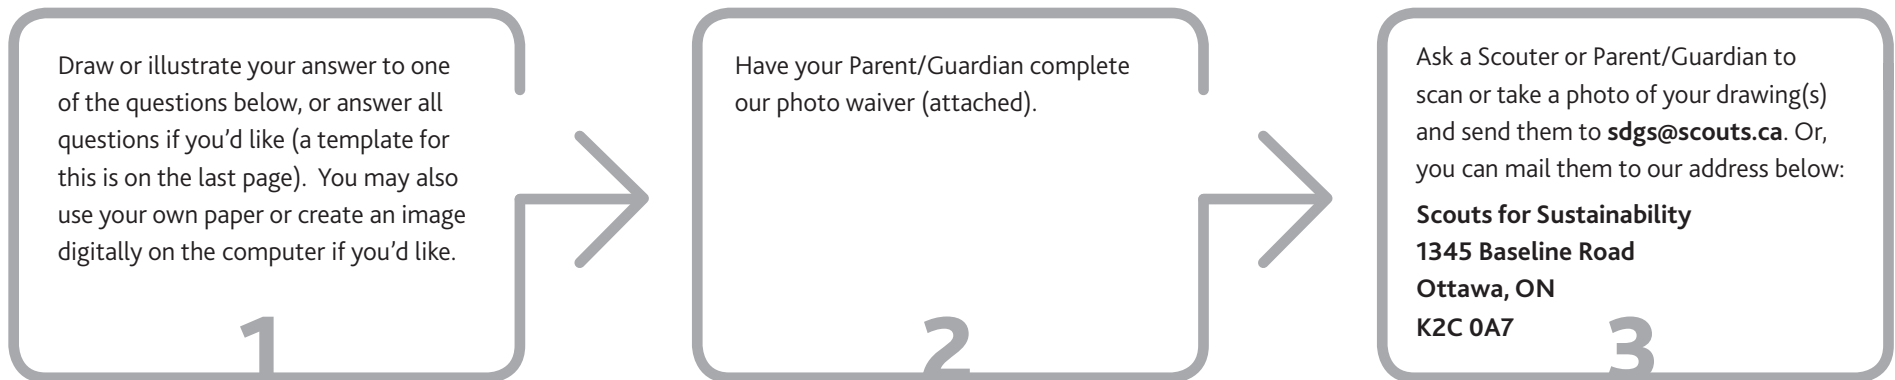

Scouts Canada supports the Sustainable Development Goals

A Guide to the Global Goals Art Contest

Help us make the world a better place by contributing your best artwork showing your good deeds and citizenship in Scouting!

All youth are invited to submit to our art contest by November 1st.

HOW? IT'S EASY:

We will use some of our favourite designs and drawings to help create our new Scouts for Sustainability website and upcoming badge.

Winners will be announced on November 15th, 2019!

1ST PLACE WINNER:
$75 Gift Card to Scout Shop

2ND PLACE WINNER:
$50 Gift Card to Scout Shop

3RD PLACE WINNER:
A neat Scout Shop prize!

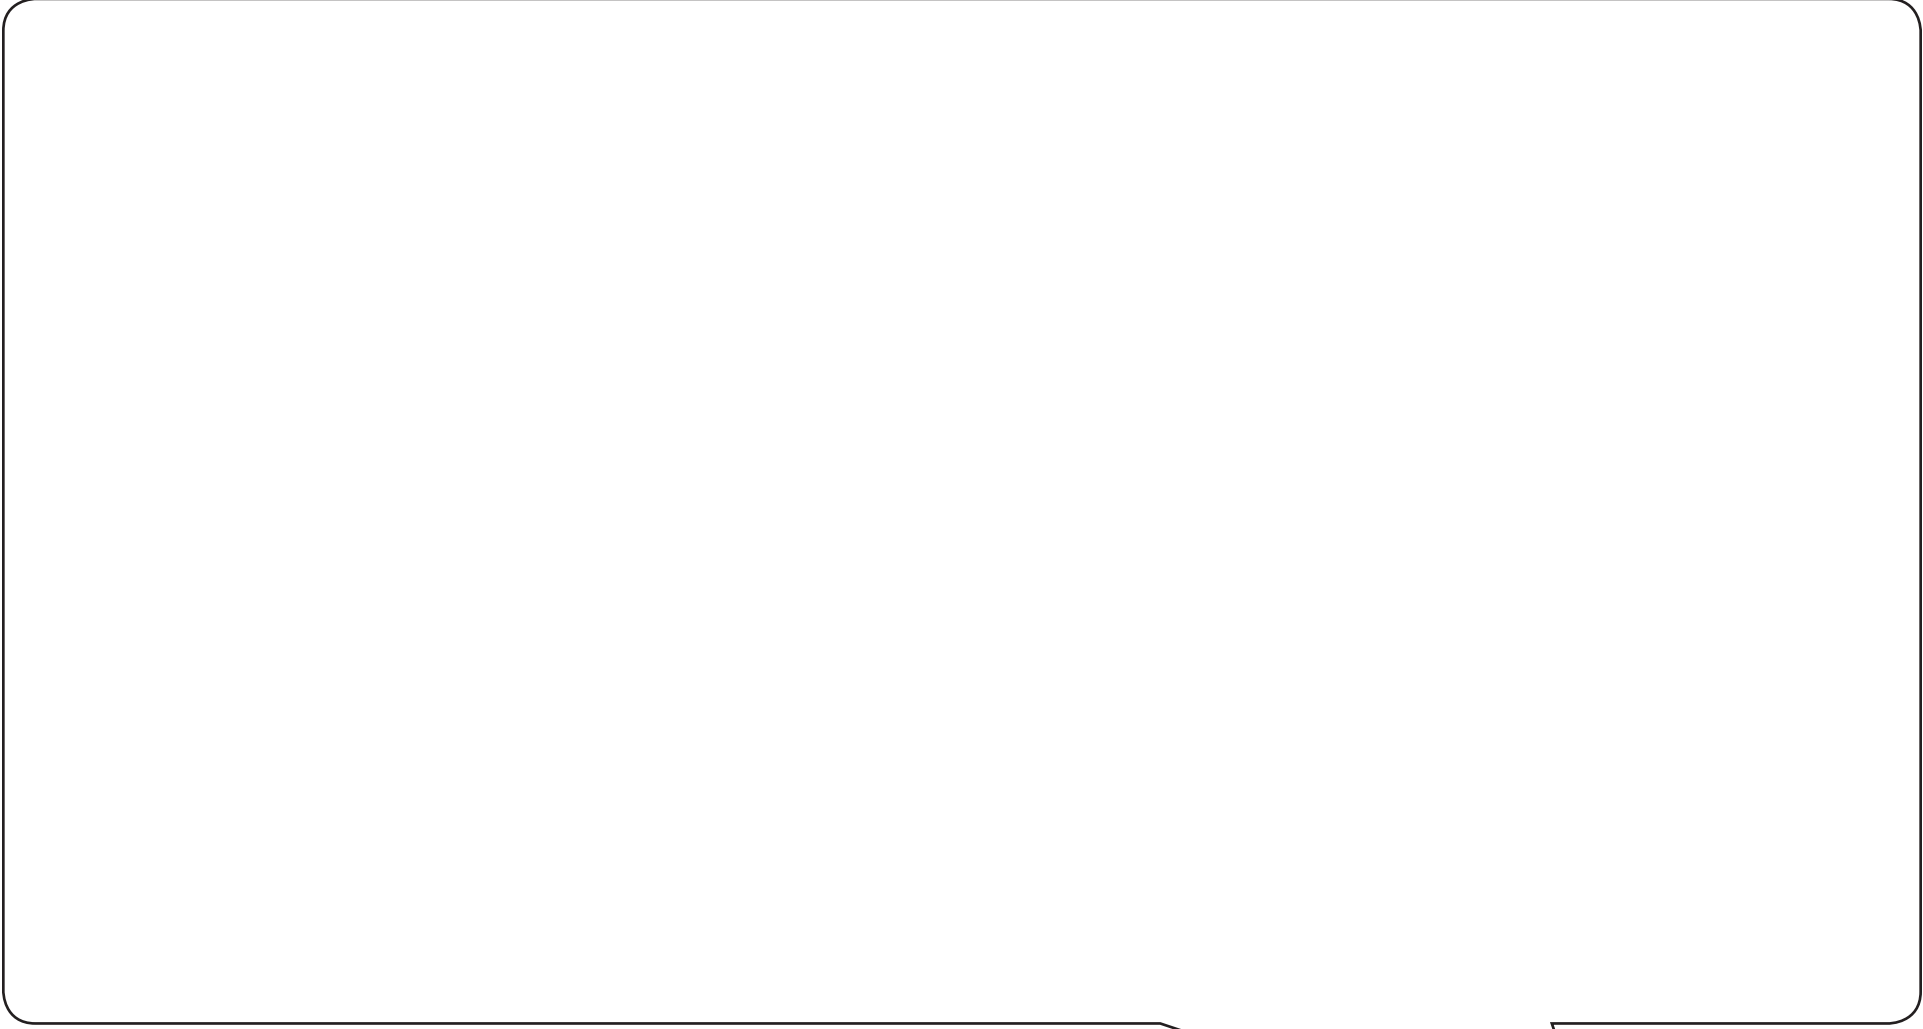

Draw how you help out in your community.

Draw how Scouts can make the world a better place.

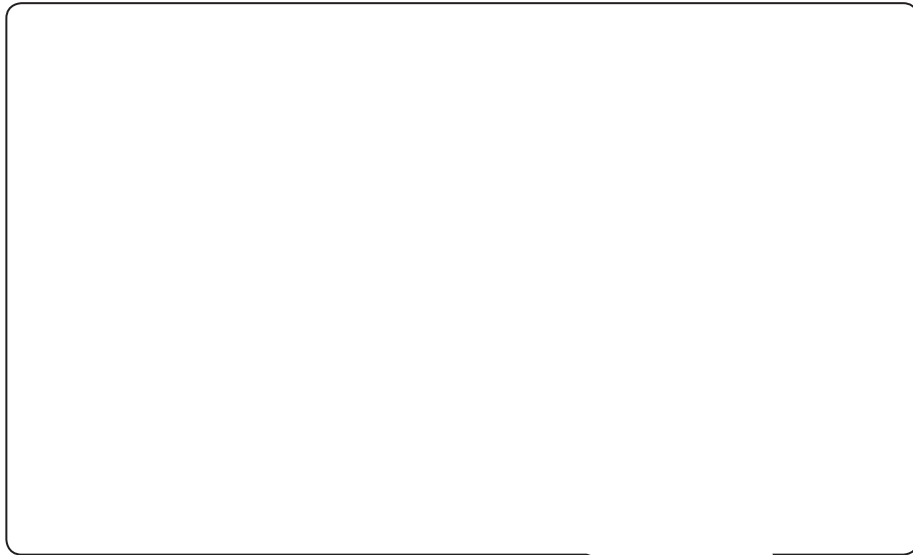

Draw some challenges we face in the world today.

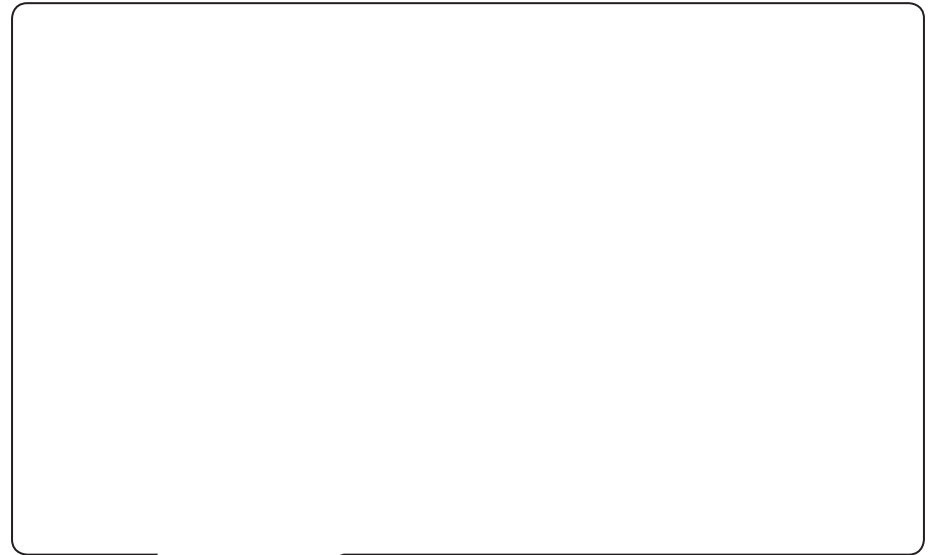

Draw what the Global Goals badge should look like.

Draw how you help out in your community.

Draw how Scouts can make the world a better place.

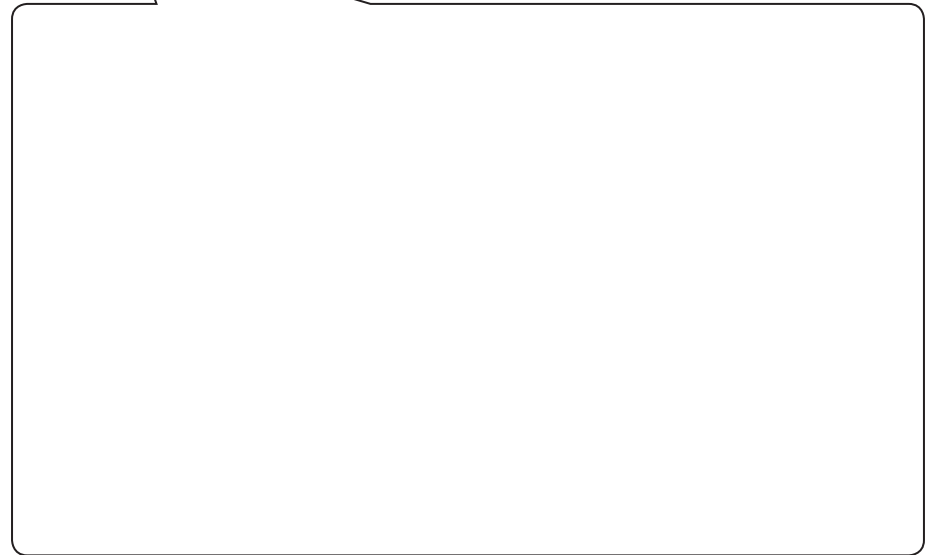

THINK GLOBAL.

ACT LOCAL.

Draw some challenges we face in the world today.

Draw what the Global Goals badge should look like.

Artwork & Writing Release Consent

With permission, artwork from the Scouts for Sustainability Art Contest will be sent to Scouts Canada's Communications Services, where they may be used—or modified—or Scouts Canada publications and promotional materials. Artwork may also be used for design ideas such as webpage design, crest/badge design, and other program design elements.

Youth's artwork can also be accompanied by text of Scouts Canada's choosing, and in any and all languages, formats and media, and in any and all promotions or advertisings for, specifically, the Scouts for Sustainability initiative.

By signing here, you agree to let us use your child's artwork and/or writing in connection with Scouts Canada in any medium (including, but not limited to, print, television, and internet/webpage design).

YES, I do give permission to Scouts Canada to use my child's artwork/writing.
