As outlined in the cancellation policy, if you test positive or have been mandated to quarantine, please contact Scouts Canada by email at summercamp@scouts.ca to discuss alternative arrangements.

Commitment

Our behaviour reflects Scouts Canada's values, promise and law and thus protects the safety and well-being of all attendees, staff and volunteers. We will set an example that we would wish others to follow.

THEREFORE,

WE WILL:

- Remember that our conduct must always be obviously safe to others and that our intention does not make a situation safe.
- Follow our youth protection policy at all times.
- Follow all safety requirements of Scouts Canada.
- Notify Scouts Canada if any of the members of our family attending are the subject of any criminal investigation or any allegation or concern related to youth safety that may impact the safety of attendees.
- Treat everyone with fairness, respect and dignity.
- Always ask any attendee permission before making physical contact with them, and ensure that any physical contact is respectful and safe.
- Encourage people to speak up about issues related to personal safety that concerns them.
- Respectfully challenge behaviour or attitudes that we believe are inconsistent with Scouting values.
- Immediately report any concern for the welfare of youth or allegations of abuse to the authorities and to Scouts Canada's camp staff member, key volunteers, or by contacting the Safe Scouting Reporting line 1-800-339-6643.
- Immediately report any breaches of this code and Scouts Canada policy to Scouts Canada.
- We will subscribe to the Mission, Principles, Practices and Methods of Scouts Canada.
- We will abide by the By-Laws, Policies and Procedures of Scouts Canada.
- We will take, to the best of our ability, reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of all other attendees, staff and volunteers, as well as our personal safety.

WE WILL NOT EVER:

- Behave in such a way that anyone could misinterpret our actions no matter how well-intended.
- Let adults contact youth attendees outside of your family outside of the Family Adventure Camping experience.
- Engage in any form of inappropriate relationship with any attendee or exploit them in any way.
- Ignore or trivialize abuse, harassment, bullying, hazing or bad behaviour.
- Have one to one contact with non-family youth online or in-person or in transit.
- Swear or use inappropriate language in front any attendee.
- Use punishments and discipline that are demeaning, embarrassing or degrading.
- Smoke in front of youth, or on the Scouts Canada property at any time.
- Consume alcohol or drugs while attending.
- Allow any allegation or concerns of abuse to go unreported.
- Engage in inappropriate conduct or behavior with attendees, including suggestive remarks threats, even in fun.

Release and Hold-Harmless

We understand that participation in Scouts Canada's Family Adventure Camp, running between July 2, 2021 to September 3rd, 2021, is voluntary and involves a certain degree of inherent risk that could result in possible accidents, physical injury, exposure to the COVID-19 virus, death or loss or damage to property.

We understand that the parents/ guardians of this family are strictly responsible for all conduct and actions taken, and are responsible for the supervisions of all minor's in the family.

We further understand that our family, and all other guests are attending as visitor's, and not as a members of Scouts Canada. As such, we understand only staff and key volunteers are trained and screened in accordance to Scouts Canada's Bylaws, Policies and Procedures.

We as a family have reviewed the Summer Camp Guide, FAQ and understand all of the rules, guidelines and Covid-19 Safety protocols in place for Family Adventure Camp. We will treat the property with respect, follow any fire ban regulations and understand that it is prohibited to bring fireworks, motorized vehicles (boats, atvs, dirtbikes or drones) or drugs and alcohol into the property.

After carefully considering the risk involved, and all items outlined above, we hereby release, hold-harmless and waive all claims associated with this activity which we, and our family attending may have against Scouts Canada, its properties, employees, officers, directors, agents, volunteers and members.

We have read, understood, agreed to the Code of Conduct above, and will abide by such as a condition of attendance. We understand that violation of the code of conduct may result in our removal from site and possible membership implications and/or ramifications.
