

Imagine a world where everyone can learn. Let's make sure that everyone has the chance to learn, and that there are lifelong learning opportunities for everyone. Teach others by organizing a book or school supply drive for a local school, reading to younger Sections or learning a new skill yourself.

QUALITY EDUCATION

Scouts is the Start of New Learning Opportunities

DID YOU KNOW?

Canada has an adult literacy rate of 99%—high, but this only means the ability to read and write short, simple statements. The worldwide literacy rate is 86%.

88.5% of Canadians between the ages of 25 and 64 have completed their high school diploma (or equivalent).

54% of Canadians aged 25 to 64 have a qualification from college or university.

IN THE FIELD

Be a Lifelong Learner

There are people in the world who have not had the same opportunities to learn that you have. Maybe they do not have access to a school due to distance or maybe they were unable to attend due to their gender, race or religion. What can you do to help others attend school? Start small—maybe with your own school! How can you make everyone at your school feel included?

ARE YOU UP FOR THE CHALLENGE?

Can you do anything to help education worldwide?

What is something you enjoy learning about? How can you help others to learn about it? How do you learn best?

What can you do in Canada to help increase the quality of education?

FURTHER AFIELD

- Learn a new skill today! Canada Learning Code offers lesson plans and workshops to teach people of all ages how to code.
- Parlez-vous français? Duolingo is a website and app that will help you learn almost any language in the world! Maybe it's time to improve your French or start learning Portuguese.
- Your local library might be an undervalued resource! In addition to hundreds (or thousands!) of books, many libraries offer educational programs you can attend, as well as tools or even musical instruments! Visit your local library and see what they have to offer.
