

INVITATION

24th NATIONAL SCOUT JAMBOREE - ACANAC'22

Starting the Celebration of CNE's Centenary

August 1 to August 7 2022

“Builders of tomorrow”

Dear International Commissioners,

Corpo Nacional de Escutas (CNE) – invites you to be part of its 24th National Scout Jamboree, which is taking place in the National Scout Centre of Idanha-a-Nova, region of Portalegre and Castelo Branco, with the capacity to welcome around 17.000 scouts.

With the motto “Builders of Tomorrow”, ACANAC'22 has the following goals:

- To become a reference experience in the scouting journey of each participant;
- To be an opportunity to confirm scout as a proposal for sustainable development with a positive impact on our communities;
- To provide individual and collective learning opportunities that match the ambitions set down by this generation of young people (2000-2014);
- Offer a range of educational opportunities that may contribute to the individual progress of young people;
- Promote the sense of belonging to the Scout Movement;
- Exchange knowledge and share experiences within scouts from different backgrounds.
- Promote peace among people all over the world.

Scouts from foreign countries who want to participate in the 24th National Scout Jamboree should make their registration through ACANAC website, between the 1st of february and the 31st of march of 2022 and will pay € 250.00 per participant.

Each contingent will be provided with support and a companion-translator, from the very moment of their arrival in the country. It will also be provided with transfers from the airports of Lisbon and Porto to the campsite, and for the return trip on 7th of August.

Scouts should be organized by national contingents in patrols and make their registration in the age section that closely matches the average age of the participants:

Scouts (10-14 years old)

Venture Scouts (14-17 years old)

Rovers (18-22 years old)

Scouts and leaders who wish to be volunteers in the ACANAC services must have, at the date of the event, the minimum age of 18 years old and must complete their registration until 30th of April, 2022.
