Religion in Life Emblem Programs

Membership in Scouts Canada is open to all girls and boys who wish to make the promise, regardless of race, colour or creed. The purpose of the Scout program is to assist girls and boys in their character development by encouraging them to be responsible citizens of their country. An important part of the program is to assist in the spiritual growth of each girl or boy, and to encourage them to participate actively in their own religious denomination. Scouts Canada upholds the principle that specific religious instruction is the responsibility of parents and religious authorities.

The Emblem

The Emblem consists of a great circle, the symbol of eternity. In the circle are the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet, Alpha and Omega, the symbol of God Himself; a reminder that the worship and service of God form an essential part of life's program from beginning to end.

Requirements

The requirements for the program differ in each faith and denomination and are prepared nationally by the churches or religious bodies to suit their particular needs.

Instruction

It is the responsibility of the group/section committee and leadership team to arrange for instruction of candidates with the candidate's own spiritual leader or appointee.

Presentation

Presentation of the emblem is made by the candidate's spiritual advisor, and can form an impressive part of a regular Scout meeting, a church service, or a special evening for parents.

Stages

The Religion in Life program is in four progressive stages, colour-coded and adapted to the age groups concerned.

Stage 1 — Grey Border

Stage 2 — Green Border

Stage 3 — Blue Border

Stage 4 — Red Border

Candidates may start at any stage appropriate to their capabilities. Only one emblem — the latest stage earned is worn.

Where Obtainable

The emblems may be obtained from provincial offices or through regular badge channels.

Where Worn

See Scouts Canada By-Law, Policies and Procedures.
